v.

Ariana Elizabeth Haro

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT AND
ORDER OF REFERRAL
(Supervised Release/Probation Violation)

ORDER OF REFERRAL

Defendant Ariana Elizabeth Haro having requested ☒ to enter an admission(s) or ☐ an evidentiary hearing regarding revocation and having consented to go forward with that proceeding before a United States Magistrate Judge, the Court refers the matter to Magistrate Judge D Thomas Ferraro to make findings as follows:

That the Defendant, (1) is competent; (2) understands the violation allegation(s); and in the event the Defendant chooses to enter an admission, (3) the Defendant knowingly and voluntarily wishes to make the admission(s); and (4) there exists a factual basis for the admission(s).

If the Defendant chooses to admit the allegation(s), the Magistrate Judge is to make a recommendation as whether the admission should be accepted by the District Court.

SO ORDERED:

Honorable James A. Soto
United States District Judge

CONSENT OF DEFENDANT

After full consultation with counsel, I voluntarily consent to go forward with ☒ my admission(s) or ☐ evidentiary hearing re revocation before the United States Magistrate Judge.

I consent to the above referral
